

A Person Like You

I sailed my ship across the sea
From Baltimore to Mozambique
Weighted anchor in the port of Singapore
Crossed the Pacific to the coast of Ecuador
But I have never, never met a person like you

I lived with tribes of the Amazon
That's a real good story but it takes too long
I threw the dice in Monoco
Ran with banditos threw the hills of Mexico
But I have never, never met a person like you

Chorus:

*I've been to hell and back and everybody there knew ya
Driving your big Cadillac, who can refuse ya
From New York city to the streets of Falluja*

I walked the snows of Kilimanjaro
I've known lots of women in Rio de Janeiro
Believe it or not
I'm a well schooled man
Been a lot of places and shook a lot of hands
But I have never, never met a person like you
SOLOS

Chorus and solee

I've seen today and Ill probably see tomorrow
I've had my thrills and know my sorrows
But you're someone who brings the whole world to you
You got angels and demons singing halleluiah
I have never, never met a person like you.

Copyright © 2017 Steve Johnson. All Rights Reserved.